

All Future Female Firefighters Camp (AFFF)

Mission Statement

The all-girls fire camp will not only show young ladies what it takes to be a firefighter, but it will also show them what it takes to be a strong, independent woman. The girls will learn both leadership and followership skills and confidence-building by using firefighting as a medium. Each participant will learn about: firefighter duties and responsibilities, physical fitness, nutrition, and breaking through stereotypes. Most importantly they will learn about pushing past limits, encouraging each other, and working as a team.

The two day experience is designed to engage young women to learn what it's like to be a firefighter through fun hands-on activities

The camp itinerary will consist of various stations and scenarios each day, such as: taking hydrants, hose practices, live fire training, forcible entry, fire extinguishers, emergency medical skills, and stop-the-bleed. It truly is an all-encompassing introduction to an amazing and rewarding profession.

VISION

We will be a model for fire departments with the All Future Female Firefighter program introducing young ladies in our community to the fire service, and provide a safe, positive team-building experience. The Lionheart Gift Foundation has graciously sponsored a full-ride scholarship for one of our AFFF students to join Utah Valley University Fire Academy. The selection of the recipient for the scholarship will be determined by a committee made up of the instructors for this camp. Any student interested for consideration of this scholarship shall submit an essay explaining their interest in becoming a firefighter to the class instructor by the start of class on April 23, 2022.
